

EMILY BARBER

Contentious Rights and Dispute Resolution Department

Emily graduated from Sheffield University with a degree in Law before studying for the LPC. She joined Davenport Lyons in 2005 as a trainee solicitor and qualified in September 2007.

Emily has joined the firm's Contentious Rights and Dispute Resolution Department as an assistant solicitor, advising on defamation and media related litigation matters as well as general commercial disputes and breach of contract disputes. Emily has had experience in contentious intellectual property, media law and litigation matters. Her recent experience includes assisting on claims brought by a member of a foreign Royal Family for breach of confidence, fraud and money tracing and assisting on claims involving breach of contract.

You can contact Emily as follows:

Direct Dial: 020 7468 1505

Email: ebarber@davenportlyons.com