

JULIE KILLIP

Corporate & Personal Recovery

Julie Killip qualified as a solicitor in 1984. Prior to joining the Corporate & Personal Recovery Group of Davenport Lyons in January 2002, in which she is a partner, she was a partner at Mishcon de Reya.

Julie specialises in contentious insolvency, both corporate and personal, and acts not only for insolvency practitioners, advising and assisting them in their administration of insolvent estates, but also for companies, partnerships and individuals on insolvency issues (their own and client related).

She also has a wide range of commercial litigation experience. In particular she has conducted many large-scale fraud actions for corporate clients involving urgent pre-action injunctions (search and seize orders, freezing orders, disclosure orders) and the tracing of assets on an international scale.

She also has wide experience of partnership and shareholder disputes and professional negligence work (particularly accountants).

Reported cases include:

- Denny v Yeldon which involved a company pension scheme appointment and the removal of Trustees, the issue being whether administrators have the power to remove an independent trustee after a pension scheme is fully paid up.
- Lombard North Central Plc v Stobart regarding promissory estoppel.
- In Re Doltable Limited relating to the court's refusal to grant an Administration Order to an SPV on the basis it did not trade.
- Sabre International Products Limited on the enforcement of liens against administrators.
- Glen Express Limited in a ruling against double proof for the same debt.
- Brand Connection Limited & Others v Patel & Others which involved an in-house fraudulent scheme and conspiracy to defraud.
- ABTA –v- Nardi relating to a fraud perpetrated by an employee and the tracing of assets.
- The Guildford and Woolwich Bombing Inquiry and the Judith Ward Appeal when she represented the forensic scientists who had been employed by the MOD at the time of the IRA bombing campaign in the 1970s.

Julie has also contributed in the past to the Insolvency Chapter of Accountancy Manual.

You can contact Julie as follows:

Direct Dial: 020 7468 1619

Email: jkillip@davenportlyons.com

Davenport Lyons