

KEVIN HEALY

Contentious Rights and Dispute Resolution Department

Kevin graduated from Warwick University before studying for the PGDL and LPC. He joined Davenport Lyons for 12 months as a paralegal in March 2003 as part of a team working on a high-profile domicile dispute. Kevin returned as a trainee solicitor in March 2005, qualifying in March 2007

Kevin is an assistant solicitor in the Contentious Rights and Dispute Resolution Department, which specialises in defamation and media-related litigation matters as well as undertaking general commercial disputes and breach of contract disputes. Kevin has had experience in commercial, music and litigation matters. His recent experience includes acting as part of the team advising a member of a foreign Royal Family in a breach of confidence, fraud and money-tracing claim.

You can contact Kevin as follows:

Direct Dial: 020 7468 2605

Email: khealy@davenportlyons.com