

LEON MORGAN

Film & TV

Leon is head of the Media Department.

A specialist in the production, financing and distribution of films, television and other audio-visual material and rights questions generally, Leon has been involved in advising the producers and financiers of a large number of feature films and television productions. He has advised banks and other financiers upon innovative film and television financing arrangements. He has acted in numerous film and TV financings (representing producers, banks and other financiers).

Leon's many clients in the media, entertainment, publishing and other related industries have included:

- Barclays Bank, The Royal Bank of Scotland, Comerica and Rand Bank.
- A wide range of film and television producers in the UK, USA and Europe including Phil Redmond (formerly of Mersey Television), The Producers Films, Moonstone Entertainment, Initial Entertainment, Cattleya s.r.l. (a leading Italian producer) and many others.
- Numerous individuals in the film and television industries: directors, producers, writers including Sir Peter Shaffer, the late Douglas Adams and others; and actors including Malcolm McDowell and the late Richard Harris.
- The literary agency Ed Victor Limited, of which Leon is also a director, and other media/theatrical agencies.

Leon is an arbitrator for IFTA (Independent Film and Television Alliance (formerly the American Film Market Association)) and an occasional member of the British Screen Advisory Council's committees. He is a member of the National Film and Television School's Finance and General Purposes Committee.
