

BRYN ROBERTSON

Corporate & Personal Recovery

Bryn is an associate in Corporate & Personal Recovery Group, having joined Davenport Lyons in April 2001. Bryn studied law at Exeter University, where he also took the Legal Practice Course. He completed a training contract with Kingsford Stacey Blackwell, qualifying in April 1998 and working in the Litigation Department before joining Davenport Lyons.

Bryn's caseload is primarily insolvency based, both contentious and non-contentious, in which he specialises with the main focus being in the travel and airline industry. Bryn assists Trevor Sears, UK Counsel for IATA. He also has experience in and advising on all insolvency areas, representing trustees, liquidators and receivers, as well as individuals and companies. He also undertakes litigation work acting for both Claimant and Defendant in contractual disputes of a commercial nature; fraud investigatory actions, including freezing injunctions and search orders; advising the film department on enforcement provisions of charges and securities.

Cases include:

- Acting for Penguin Books in making David Irving bankrupt.
- Acting for Private Eye in making Condliffe bankrupt following an unsuccessful libel action brought against the Eye.
- Two large scale fraud actions brought by ABTA, involving search orders and freezing injunctions.
- Bankruptcy proceedings against Bruce Grobbelaar on behalf of the News Group Newspapers.
- Debt recovery actions for British Airways Travel Shops and Lufthansa.
- Global Collect BV, a Dutch merchant provider, concerning fraudulent processing of credit card payments including asset tracing and freezing injunctions.
- Brand Connection, freezing injunctions against Administrators of two companies including a dispute over transfer and ownership of company assets.

You can contact Bryn as follows:

Direct Dial: 020 7468 5568

Email: [brobertson@davenportlyons.com](mailto:b Robertson@davenportlyons.com)